

1. Role of Emergency Management Personnel Rubric

Category	Grammar, spelling and presentation	Essay Format and Presentation	High Level/Theoretical/Policy discussion	Role of the Emergency Manager	Knowledge
Good (10 points)	No major errors in grammar or spelling. Information is presented in a logical and easy to read manner	The Author used an essay format with an introduction at least 3 supporting paragraphs and a conclusion	The Author illustrated a high-level, policy-based, or theory-based discussion of emergency management personnel's role in disaster with coherent arguments/discussion	The author demonstrated knowledge about the role of the emergency manager within the emergency management enterprise	The author illustrated extensive knowledge of the emergency management enterprise
Fair (8 points)	Few spelling and punctuation errors, minor grammatical errors Information is presented in a logical and easy to read manner		The Author used a mostly high-level discussion of emergency management personnel with some tactical discussion.
Needs work (6 points)	Several grammatical errors and spelling errors. Information is organized, but not in a very easy to read manner	The Author is missing one part of the essay (intro., conclusion, or has less than 3 supporting paragraphs)		The author discussed parts of the role of the emergency manager, or confused the role of the emergency manager with other leaders within the emergency management enterprise.	The author illustrated some knowledge of the emergency management enterprise
Weak (4 points)	Many errors, little editing, or use of spellcheck. Information is disorganized		The Author used a mostly tactical discussion of an event with very little high-level discussion of emergency management personnel
None (0 points)		The Author is missing multiple parts of the essay (intro., conclusion, supporting paragraphs)	The Author only used a tactical discussion of emergency management personnel and how they are used in a response.	Author did not discuss the role of the emergency manager within the emergency management enterprise	The author illustrated little to no knowledge of the emergency management enterprise

2. Emergency Management Response Essay Rubric

Category	Grammar and punctuation	Essay Format	Scenario	Emergency Management Role	Knowledge
Good (10 points)	No major errors in grammar or spelling. Information is presented in a logical and easy to read manner	The Author used an essay format with an introduction, at least 3 supporting paragraphs, and a conclusion	The author illustrated an understanding of the scenario given	The author illustrated the emergency manager role in the disaster scenario given.	The author illustrated extensive knowledge of the emergency management enterprise
Fair (8 points)	Few spelling and punctuation errors, minor grammatical errors
Needs work (6 points)	Several grammatical errors and spelling errors. Information is organized, but not in a very easy to read manner	The Author is missing one part of the essay (intro., conclusion, or has less than 3 supporting paragraphs)	The author only partially used the scenario given	The author discussed parts of the role of the emergency manager in the disaster scenario, or confused the emergency manager role with other roles in the disaster scenario.	The author illustrated some knowledge of the emergency management enterprise
Weak (4 points)	Many errors, little editing, or use of spellcheck. Information is disorganized
None (0 points)		The Author is missing multiple parts of the essay (intro., conclusion, supporting paragraphs)	The author did not use the scenario given	The author did not demonstrate the role of the emergency manager in the disaster scenario.	The author illustrated little to no knowledge of the emergency management enterprise

3. Training/Lesson Plan Rubric

Category	Grammar and punctuation	Presentation	Format	Phases of Emergency Management	Knowledge
Good (10 points)	No major errors in grammar or spelling	Information is presented in a logical and easy to read manner.	The Author includes audio visuals and a method of evaluation. The presentation is the appropriate length	The presentation covers one or more of the phases of emergency management	The author illustrated extensive knowledge of the emergency management enterprise
Fair (8 points)	Few spelling and punctuation errors, minor grammatical errors
Needs work (6 points)	Several grammatical errors and spelling errors	Information is organized, but not in a very easy to read manner			The author illustrated some knowledge of the emergency management enterprise
Weak (4 points)	Many errors, little editing, or use of spellcheck
None (0 points)		Information is disorganized	The Author is missing Audio-Visuals or a method of evaluation. The presentation is not the appropriate length	The presentation does not cover any phases of emergency management	The author illustrated little to no knowledge of the emergency management enterprise